

THE HALO

TRUST

In closing,

This Convention was brought about by close partnership and collaboration between civil society and states. The inclusion of communities, survivors, NGOs and civil society experts in its implementation has been – and will remain – critical to its success.